When the Full-Text button is selected you will be directed to the publisher website. If the library subscribes to the journal or conference paper you will have access and should be able to easily download the article.

Our Open URL Link Resolver (Full-Text Finder) reconciles the search results against the holdings of our library.

If we have access a link will be present on the page below that will direct you to the article level.
 If no full-text is available the link resolver will direct you to the library for assistance.

Simply click on "Request Document from Technical Library".
